A NEW Clothing Store!

W. H. PENN & CO., Prop's.

W. H. Penn, the genial manager of Vorheis, Miller & Co's. store, of this city, for several years past, has resigned his position, and will engage in business for himself. He has just returned from the east, where he purchased a complete stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Trunks, Valises, Etc.

These goods he bought direct from the factories, and will be able to sell them as cheap as any house in the county. The advantage they have over their competitors is that their stock is all new, and that they have no shelf worn or second hand stock.

All these Goods are Up-to-date in Style, and Quality Second to None.

This new firm will be located in the Realty block, next door east of Snyder Bros., and will be open for business

Saturday, Aug. 19th, '99.

Mr. Penn extends an invitation to all his old patrons, as well as to all new ones, who will do well to call and see them, and look over their stock and prices.

An effort is being made by the State Journal, World-Herald and two or three other daily papers, to raise by popular subscription a sum sufficient to transport the Fifth Nebraska Regiment from San Francisco to their homes in Nebraska. The plan is to have as many as can advance $20.00 each for the enterprise, and have the governor recommend to the state legislature to make an appropriation to reimburse those who advance the money. The girls of Broken Bow raised $40 for the fund. It is a legitimate and laudable scheme, and at least $200 ought to be guaranteed by the citizens of Broken Bow for the project. Who will take hold of it?

Jimmy Lang the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Lang living southeast of Round Grove, met with a very severe accident Saturday afternoon by being accidentally shot in the thigh with a shot gun. He was in company with a number of other boys of his age who had gone out hunting, and was seated in the bottom of the wagon in which they were riding, when one of the boys came up and laid a shot gun in the bottom of the wagon box. When the team started the boys reared back and in some way kicked or stepped upon the gun in a manner which caused it to be discharged, the entire load hitting the little fellow as above stated. He was taken home as quickly as possible and Dr. A. E. Robertson of this village, and Dr. Palmer of Litchfield, were sent for. The Doctor dressed the wound and made the little fellow as comfortable as possible. At last reports he was getting along as well as could be expected. —Transcript.

DIED.

MAULICK—Saturday morning, August 12th, 1899, John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maulick, of typhoid fever, age 17 years, 9 months and 16 days.

The deceased was a native of Illinois, but had been a resident of this city since a small boy, with the exception of a few months last year, when he worked in a store in Illinois. The past year he had been associated with his father in the butcher business until the 7th of last July, when he accepted a position as brakeman on the passenger division at Alliance, Nebraska, his runs being east to Ravenna and west to Edgemont, S. D. Aug. 2d he arrived home, with a severe attack of the fever, having worked several days before he would yield to the terrible disease. He was delirious much of the time from the date he reached home until death relieved him from his suffering. At the age of twelve years he was converted, and united with the U. B. church. He was of a genial disposition, and an exemplary young man, and enjoyed the esteem of a large circle of young associates, as well as the admiration of all who knew him, for his manly demeanor. He was a boy of more than ordinary intelligence, ambitious, and was looked upon by all who knew him intimately, as one who would make his mark in the world. But his frail body was not strong enough to withstand the dread disease which had fastened itself upon him, and he was cut off in his youth, and we are again reminded that death is no respecter of age, but while the old must, the young may die, and all should be prepared for the event, let it come when it may. The funeral services were held Monday, at 10 o'clock, in the M. E. church. The sermon was preached by Rev. Hornaday, assisted by Rev. Megan. The funeral was very largely attended. The REPUBLICAN extends sympathy to the bereaved parents, sisters and brothers, in their great sorrow.

A GRAND PICNIC.

The Sunday Schools of Broken Bow District Visit Ravenna.

At the Broken Bow district Sunday school convention held in this city the last of July it was recommended to hold a district Sunday school picnic at Ravenna, if satisfactory arrangements could be made for transportation. A committee from each of the Sunday schools was appointed with authority to complete arrangements. The committee organized by electing F. M. Rublee chairman and Willis Cadwell secretary. The chairman was authorized to visit Omaha with the view of arranging with the B. & M. railroad company for transportation. In this Mr. Rublee was able to secure quite a liberal concession from regular rates. A train of six coaches including a baggage car was chartered to run on special time for $200. The date agreed upon for the excursion was August 10th. The plan of the committee was to provide free transportation for all children enrolled in the several Sunday schools. In order to raise the fund necessary to meet the expenses, adults were charged one dollar for the round trip. A solicitor committee, consisting of E. J. Pittaway, D. M. Amsherry, L. E. Wilson and Judge Benjamin were appointed to secure funds, from the city schools and W. J. Windnagle and John Street to solicit their schools in the country. As a result of the canvass, there were 673 persons boarded the train Thursday morning, of which 262 of them had contributed to the fund to meet the expenses. The train left Broken Bow at 8:40 arriving at Ravenna 10 o'clock, without a mishap or incident of note, except that Mrs. A. Wallace, while looking out of a car window lost her hat. On reaching Ravenna the company was escorted to the grove half mile distant on the Beaver. On reaching the grounds we found the citizens of Ravenna had erected a stage, seats, and tables for our accommodations, besides having the ground in elegant shape. They had also provided for transporting our baskets to and from the grounds and kept the grounds supplied all day with ice water. As our committee had provided lemons and sugar an abundant supply of ice cold lemonade was kept on tap all day, so for once the children as well as every body else had all the lemonade they could drink. The Ravenna cornet band furnished music for the crowd the entire day, which added very much to the enjoyment of the occasion. The treatment received from the railroad officers and employes as well as the interest taken in our comfort by the citizens of Ravenna was very highly appreciated by all who enjoyed their hospitality. The day was greatly enjoyed by both old and young and the opinion seemed to be unanimous that a Sunday school picnic to Ravenna should in the future be an annual affair. The following literary program was rendered before noon.

Song, "All hail the Power of Jesus' Name" Prayer, Rev. Burne
 Address of Welcome, Mayor Duncan, of Ravenna
 Response, Mayor Boyce, of Broken Bow
 Song, "America," accompanied by Band
 Recitation, "Daisy Brown," of Grinnell, Ia.
 Recitation, "The Good Samaritan," Carlisle Kroll
 Duett, "The Good Samaritan," F. M. Rublee
 Five Minute Talk, "The Good Samaritan," L. H. Jewett
 Music by Band.
 Recitation, "The Good Samaritan," Mrs. Hubbard
 Recitation, "The Good Samaritan," Miss Funk
 Song, "The Good Samaritan," Miss Funk
 Music by Band.

After dinner the time was spent by the little folks in swing building sand houses and games. A horse ball game between the "tax" and "leaves" furnished sport for a number of the adults while others enjoyed the shade, in hearing distance of the music and in close proximity to the water and lemonade tanks. Upon the whole it was one of the most successful picnic excursions ever inaugurated in the state and all who participated express themselves as having enjoyed the day immensely. Just before departing C. L. Guttererson in a neat speech expressed the gratitude of our company to the citizens of Ravenna for their generous hospitality shown us. The committee on arrangements also passed resolutions to Mr. Davenport and Ravenna citizens, thanking them for the cordial reception and generous treatment shown us while with them and authorized, the chairman F. M. Rublee to convey the same to them. The treasurer report showed that $262.50 had been received from sale of tickets and that the total expense was $223.50, leaving a balance of $39.00 in the treasury. On motion the $39 was distributed equally between the eight schools which participated in the enterprise.
